

P

P

Denis Rancourt

[FEC] Fwd: News from FEC committee Take 2

Daniel Cayley-Daoust <[redacted]>

Thu, May 15, 2008 at 1:46 PM

To: Denis Rancourt <[redacted]>

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Nathalie Page <n.page8@gmail.com> ★

Date: 2008/5/15

Subject: Re: News from FEC committee Take 2

To: Daniel Cayley-Daoust <[redacted]>

Hi Daniel,

Unfortunately I won't be able to get in touch this week, which is incredibly busy for me (so many things on the go!), and also the beginning of next week. I think it would be a good idea as well to meet up. I'll call or email you next week perhaps and we can talk about meeting up for a chat.

I'll be in touch!

~Nat

On 5/12/08, Daniel Cayley-Daoust <[redacted]> wrote:

Hi Nathalie,

Glad to see you seemed to have enjoyed the course and want to support it. At the moment, nothing much is really happening with the FEC, mostly stuff related to random events on campus. If you are around town sometime I wouldn't mind meeting with you for coffee (though I don't drink coffee), dessert or something. We could even meet up half way to Navan somewhere east or south. I am somewhat interested in home schooling and I could give you a heads up on happenings at the University of Ottawa and see how you could best fit in to help us out. I could give you a call if you like or you can call me if you'd like to set something up 819-[redacted] though it is most likely a long distance. Or we could just set something up via email.

Take care and stay in touch,

Daniel

2008/5/12 Nathalie Page <n.page8@gmail.com>:

Hi Daniel,

I guess a little intro is required here: I'm Nathalie, and I'm currently home schooled in Navan but plan on attending the University of Ottawa in 2009. I attended a number of the SCI1101 classes back in 2006. I have also been following the whole story since then, as I strongly believe in activism as a catalyst for change in society! I am a member of the Google Group for Reviving the Activism Course but I haven't posted. In one of your emails I saw that you had emailed the FEC, and I thought perhaps I could get involved in that google group too. So there is no activity at all on that group. Sorry to hear that... is there any other way I can help out the FEC otherwise, even if I'm not a U of O student? It's not easy for me to make it out to meetings during the day but I try my best to keep informed via the internet and these handy Google Groups.

Thanks a lot,

Nathalie

On Sun, May 11, 2008 at 5:35 PM, Daniel Cayley-Daoust <[REDACTED]> wrote:
Just to add the following:

The FEC committee is more or less active at the moment. For the activism class struggle, we have another group I could add you to if you want. Where did you hear about this? Did you participate in the activism class?

Thanks,

Daniel

Denis Rancourt <[REDACTED]>

[FEC] Fwd: News from FEC committee Take 2

Daniel Cayley-Daoust <[REDACTED]>

Mon, May 12, 2008 at 1:21 PM

To: FEC - Freedom of Expression Committee <ottawafec@googlegroups.com>

I don't really know this person. She is on the reinstate-ac email list, and would like to join the FEC list. I don't mind, but I thought I'd ask you before. See below.

Daniel

2008/5/12 Nathalie Page <n.page8@gmail.com>:

Hi Daniel,

I guess a little intro is required here: I'm Nathalie, and I'm currently home schooled in Navan but plan on attending the University of Ottawa in 2009. I attended a number of the SCI1101 classes back in 2006. I have also been following the whole story since then, as I strongly believe in activism as a catalyst for change in society! I am a member of the Google Group for Reviving the Activism Course but I haven't posted. In one of your emails I saw that you had emailed the FEC, and I thought perhaps I could get involved in that google group too. So there is no activity at all on that group. Sorry to hear that... is there any other way I can help out the FEC otherwise, even if I'm not a U of O student? It's not easy for me to make it out to meetings during the day but I try my best to keep informed via the internet and these handy Google Groups.

Thanks a lot,

Nathalie

On Sun, May 11, 2008 at 5:35 PM, Daniel Cayley-Daoust <daniel.cayleydaoust@gmail.com> wrote:

Just to add the following:

The FEC committee is more or less active at the moment. For the activism class struggle, we have another group I could add you to if you want. Where did you hear about this? Did you participate in the activism class?

Thanks,

Daniel

You received this message because you are subscribed to the Google Groups "FEC - Freedom of Expression Committee" group.

To post to this group, send email to ottawafec@googlegroups.com

To unsubscribe from this group, send email to ottawafec-unsubscribe@googlegroups.com

For more options, visit this group at <http://groups.google.com/group/ottawafec?hl=en>
