ONTARIO LABOUR RELATIONS BOARD

3744-10-M Denis Rancourt, Ontario, Applicant v. University of Ottawa, Responding Party.

BEFORE: Patrick Kelly, Vice-Chair.

DECISION OF THE BOARD; March 8, 2011

1. This is an application for interim orders under the Labour Relations Act, 1995, S.O. 1995, c.1, as amended.
2. By way of decision dated February 23, 2011, the Board stated:
 2. The request appears to relate to grievance proceedings and to certain employer applications (dated, it is alleged, January 28, 2011) which do not appear to be applications to this Board. The Board files cited, "A12001764" etc., are not in the form of Board files.
 3. I also note that the University advises that the grievances which are the subject of the unfair labour practice complaints have been referred to arbitration on consent of the University and the Association of Professors of the University of Ottawa. If that is so, it appears that the interim order sought be best put before that arbitrator.
 4. Under the circumstances, the responding party need not file a response to the application for interim orders. The applicant must advise the Board within 10 days of the date of this decision whether he still seeks interim orders and, if so, explain how the Board has jurisdiction to make them in the event of the appointment of the arbitrator. If no submissions are received, the application for interim orders will be dismissed.
3. The Board has received nothing further from the applicant.
4. Accordingly, the application is dismissed.

"Patrick Kelly"
for the Board
